

2019 Artist Agreement for Open Studios: How Art Is Made

Applicants must understand and agree to the follow terms and conditions:

The purpose of Open Studios is to showcase, promote, and market the visual arts in our area and educate the public about art and the art-making process. Failure to comply with the Open Studios requirements and the conditions listed below, will void eligibility to participate in subsequent Open Studios events.

1. I agree to open my studio from 11 am to 4 pm on the following dates:
Saturday, September 28, and Sunday, September 29, 2019
(Religious exemptions are available.)
2. I will have a minimum of 15 completed, original artworks, created during the past five years, prominently displayed at my Open Studios.
3. I agree not to exhibit, display for sale, or host the work of a non-participating artist in the space over which I have control. (If I wish to share with another artist, I understand the other artist needs to apply to event.)
4. I understand that if I am hosted by another person, he/she must be a 2019 Open Studios artist, or it must be a non-art related space.
5. I understand that my process must be adequately shown. I will show visitors my actual workspace, materials, tools and works-in-progress. If I'm being hosted, I will re-create my studio workspace at the host's studio. I will discuss and, whenever possible, demonstrate my art-making process. At a minimum, storyboards and/or visual aids will be on display.
6. I will abide by the following restrictions on reproductions: less prominent and separate placement from original work, 20% maximum space allocation, clear and accurate labeling, and identifying the work as a "reproduction." (A "reproduction" is defined as a copy of original art).
7. I agree that the images submitted with my application may be used for promotion of the event and in the map. (The artist retains all copyright of the image.)
8. I agree to complete the Open Studios Artist Survey at the completion of Open Studios.
9. Participating artists must be members of the Grants Pass Museum of Art. If I am not already a member, I will purchase my membership when accepted. If already a member I agree to keep my membership current.
